

NAME : _____ GRADE : _____

SCORE

/ 8

Quiz on Types of Volcanoes

Fill-in the Correct Answer Codes

1

A volcano that is quite for a long time but which may erupt again is termed as:

A

Dormant volcano

2

An underwater fissure on the ocean floor from which magma erupts is termed as:

B

Submarine volcano

3

A tall, cone-shaped volcano with alternate layers of lava and ash is termed as:

C

Fissure vent

4

A volcano that is inactive and unlikely to erupt again is termed as:

D

Shield volcano

5

A volcano that is erupting or that has erupted recently is termed as:

E

Extinct volcano

6

A small but steep volcano made of loosely packed volcanic ash, cinders is termed as:

F

Composite volcano

7

A low, gently sloping volcano formed by quiet eruptions of lava is termed as:

G

Active volcano

8

A large crack on the Earth's surface through which lava emerges is termed as:

H

Cinder cone volcano

QUIZ ANSWER KEY

Quiz on Types of Volcanoes

Code:04629

(Match it to Code at Bottom-Right of Quiz Sheet)

Correct Answers :

- | | |
|-------|---------------------------|
| 1 : A | - [Dormant volcano] |
| 2 : B | - [Submarine volcano] |
| 3 : F | - [Composite volcano] |
| 4 : E | - [Extinct volcano] |
| 5 : G | - [Active volcano] |
| 6 : H | - [Cinder cone volcano] |
| 7 : D | - [Shield volcano] |
| 8 : C | - [Fissure vent] |